Helping Others.
Lawyers are professional problem solvers, but they are also uniquely vulnerable to a number of stressors that can threaten their health, personal lives, and, most especially, their livelihoods. LAP works with lawyers to enhance worklife satisfaction and to prevent stressors from jeopardizing a lawyer’s life and practice.

LAP is committed to partnering with all lawyers on the path to emotional health and recovery.

Helping You.
Lawyers can come to LAP for personal support or to seek out help for a colleague with complete assurance of confidentiality. LAP’s free and confidential services include consultations, assessments, individual and group therapy, referrals, interventions, and other needed services.

Confidentiality is guaranteed by Supreme Court Rule 1.6(d), which guarantees that all information received by LAP is protected by the attorney-client privilege.

LAP is not affiliated with the ARDC and may not disclose any information unless the lawyer signs a release requesting LAP to do so.

Our Mission:

To help lawyers, judges, and law students get assistance.

To protect clients from impaired lawyers and judges.

To educate the legal community.
